1. In Uiju-gun (義州郡) there is a training school which has approximately 200 students. This school differs from the regular Peace Preservation Corps Officers Schools in that it is only for members of the Peace Preservation Office (Bo An So) (保安署) and is under the control of the provincial government. The Peace Preservation Office is mainly a civilian organization and performs police and administrative functions, whereas the Peace Preservation Corps is a military organization).
2. In the Uiju-gun school the emphasis is placed on political training, although the students also receive some military training.
3. The head of the school is KIM Chung-kwon (金重權). He is 33 years of age and at one time was in Yenan.
4. One of the military instructors is YI Won-so (李元瑞). He is 24 years of age and at one time was in Yenan.
5. There is a political instructor named KIM In-kun (金仁根). He is 28 years of age and studied in Japan.
